about CALA

The California Assisted Living Association (CALA) is the only association solely representing the state's Residential Care Facilities for the Elderly, which encompass Assisted Living, Memory Care, and Continuing Care Retirement Communities. CALA was created by and for those interested in promoting and strengthening Assisted Living in the state of California, and represents over 650 providers and more than 160 associated businesses.

CALA's members

Provider members range from small, independently operated communities to large, multi-national organizations, and from those that cater to an active lifestyle to ones that specialize in caring for residents with dementia. A CALA membership can help you:

- ▶ Ensure compliance with laws not yet in regulation
- ▶ Gain access to "members only" tools, information, and technical support
- ▶ Utilize timely education, peer networking, and professional development

CALA's mission

CALA is devoted to the betterment of Assisted Living by providing:

- ▶ Leadership to Assisted Living providers and other stakeholders in the Assisted Living field
- ▶ Advocacy to protect the interests of providers and the consumer-focused service they provide
- ▶ Education to support the provision of high-quality programs and services

What CALA Membership Does for You

leadership

- ▶ Weekly e-newsletters and seasonal magazine provide timely clarification and in-depth exploration of topics affecting daily operations
- ▶ Access to resources, like the Legal Library and Comprehensive Compliance Audit help ensure compliance
- ▶ Biannual Compensation Reports help members offer competitive wages

"THE WEBSITE AND ACCESS TO THE UPDATED IMPLEMENTATION PLANS ARE BOOKMARKED ON MY DESKTOP. I ALSO ENJOY READING THE CALA NEWS & VIEWS MAGAZINE FOR THE LATEST INFORMATION AND TRENDS."

Todd Shetter, COO
ActivCare Living

advocacy

"ADVOCACY DAY PROVIDES ACCESS TO KEY LEGISLATORS WHO ARE WILLING TO LISTEN AND RESPOND TO CONCERNS AND ISSUES FACING US AS PROVIDERS."

Jeff Slichta, Senior VP of Operations
Sunrise Senior Living

- ▶ Members learn about new laws and pending legislation as they unfold
- ▶ Advocacy Day, Day in Your District, and the Advocates in Action grassroots program allow members to actively advocate for Assisted Living
- ▶ Members can rely on CALA's representation before State Legislature, and the Department of Social Services' Community Care Licensing Division and Continuing Care Contracts Branch

education

- ▶ Annual Spring and Fall Conference & Trade Shows address critical topics presented by top-notch speakers from across the country
- ▶ Learning partnerships provide access to helpful training and technological resources at discounted rates
- ▶ Awards programs recognize outstanding care, programming, leadership, and advocacy

"OUR COMMUNITY AND CORPORATE STAFF LOOK FORWARD TO THE CALA CONFERENCES AS A CHANCE TO LEARN BEST PRACTICES, OBTAIN CEUS, AND NETWORK WITH THEIR COLLEAGUES."

CALA Member companies are required to enroll all California RCFEs into membership. If you have a community under development, the fee structure is based on the minimum fee per location. Once your community opens, membership fees will be based on RCFE licensed units. One primary member/contact at each location receives all mailings. All employees at each location are considered members for conference and product pricing. Any communications from CALA are intended for members only and not to be distributed outside of your organization.
